Boy Scouts of America
National Honor Patrol Award

The very best patrols exhibit enthusiasm, teamwork, and camaraderie—that special spark known as patrol spirit.

The National Honor Patrol Award is given to patrols whose members make an extra effort to have the best patrol possible. Your patrol can earn the award by doing the following over a period of three months.

Your patrol may earn multiple award patches by meeting the requirements in additional three-month time periods.

1. Have a patrol name, flag, and yell. Put the patrol design on equipment and use the patrol yell. Keep patrol records up-to-date.

   Date completed_____ Approved by_____

2. Hold two patrol meetings each month.

   Date completed_____ Approved by_____

3. Take part in at least one hike, outdoor activity, or other Scouting event.

   Date completed_____ Approved by_____

4. Complete two Good Turns or service projects approved by the patrol leaders' council.

   Date completed_____ Approved by_____

5. Help two patrol members advance in rank.

   Date completed_____ Approved by_____

6. Have at least 75 percent of members in full uniform at troop activities.

   Date completed_____ Approved by_____

7. Have a representative attend at least three patrol leaders' council meetings.

   Date completed_____ Approved by_____

8. Have eight members in the patrol or experience an increase in patrol membership.

   Date completed_____ Approved by_____

The following patrol has successfully completed the requirements for the National Honor Patrol Award:

Patrol _____ Troop No. _____

Date completed_____ Approved by _____

Scoutmaster's approval_____

Each unit leader determines if a patrol qualifies for the National Honor Patrol Award. The patch is an embroidered gold star (BSA No. 367) worn around the patrol emblem and purchased at Scout shops or council service centers.

512-021WB
2011 Printing